

FOR JADWIGA

an artist's book in remembrance of my grandmother's journey... through internment and war, a legacy of loss and displacement.

A dress hidden in a suitcase,
the one thing that is important enough to save.

If the cloth could speak it would whisper secrets, visions of all it had seen and danced and what it had survived. Long after all the stories are gone...

—TALYA RUBIN

limited edition of 7
image & text in English & French with colophon
presented in a carrying case
with a marker ribbon
8,5 × 6,5 inches
© 2012

EWA MONIKA ZEBROWSKI

to reserve a copy contact

ezebrowski@hotmail.com

514.271.3901

www.ewazebrowski.com